Sexual Assault Investigation Update

PULLMAN – The investigation of the incidents that reportedly occurred at the Delta Upsilon fraternity on September 2 continues. Detectives are conducting additional interviews and are awaiting results from the state crime lab of evidence sent for analysis. The Delta Upsilon fraternity membership has been cooperative throughout the investigation.

Original Press Release from September 3, 2016:

On Friday, September 2 at about 6:25 pm, Pullman Police were called to contact a possible sexual assault victim being treated at Pullman Regional Hospital. The victim, an 18-year-old female Washington State University (WSU) student, reported that she was provided alcohol and was sexually assaulted at the Delta Upsilon fraternity at 815 NE Ruby St., Pullman.

On Saturday, September 3 at about 2:05 am, Pullman officers were called to Pullman Regional Hospital where officers contacted a 17-year-old female WSU student. The female reported that she was provided alcohol at Delta Upsilon earlier in the evening and later became ill.

Investigators served a search warrant at Delta Upsilon and collected evidence. A possible suspect in the sexual assault investigation was also contacted and interviewed at the location. The suspect was not arrested pending additional investigation. The Office of Student Conduct at Washington State University was notified of the investigations.
