NATIONAL POLICE WEEK 2018: HONORING AND REMEMBERING OUR FALLEN LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

Pullman – Again this year, communities across the United States will come together during National Police Week, May 13-19, to honor and remember those law enforcement officers who made the ultimate sacrifice, as well as the family members, friends and fellow officers they left behind.

This year, the names of 360 officers killed in the line of duty are being added to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial in Washington, DC. These 394 officers include 129 officers who lost their lives in 2017, plus 231 officers who died in previous years but whose stories of sacrifice had been lost to history until now.

The names of all 360 fallen officers nationwide will be formally dedicated during the 30th Annual Candlelight Vigil on the evening of May 13, 2018, to be held on the National Mall in Washington, DC. So that people across the country can experience this unique and powerful ceremony, the vigil will be webcast live over the Internet beginning at 5 PM (PDT) on May 13th. To register for this free online event, visit www.LawMemorial.org/webcast.

Pullman Police Chief Gary Jenkins commented, “Law enforcement officers in the City of Pullman, the State of Washington, and throughout the nation put their lives on the line every day for their communities. We are fortunate that these brave men and women have chosen to dedicate their lives to the safety of others.”
